Brad, we all know that violent crime is one of our biggest challenges and I know that you are very interested in making progress on this front. At the Crime Commission, we have new leadership with Bill Gibbons, a new relationship with the University of Memphis and a new 5 year plan. We are aligned with our 2 Mayors and MPD Director Rallings. We have more resources for community engagement and getting the word out. We have helped in recruiting and retention of sworn officers. A new class of sworn officers and PSTs will soon hit the streets and we are committed to getting more boots on the ground which is critical to driving down violent crime with data driven pro-active policing. Bill and I would like to visit with you about our new plan, structure and priorities. Could you give us a few dates in June that you will be in town that we could coordinate a visit around? Thanks for your consideration.
